Think about how a character changes throughout the story. Fill in thoughts and characteristics of the main character in each section.

The form consists of three columns, each representing a stage of a story. At the top of each column is a rounded rectangular box containing the label: 'Beginning', 'Middle', and 'End' respectively. Below each label is a large, empty rectangular box with a dark blue border, intended for the student to write their observations. A large, light blue arrow graphic points from the left side of the 'Beginning' box towards the right side of the 'End' box, indicating the progression of the story.
